VOL. II. NO. 19.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, APRIL 16, 1896.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

FORSYTH OPENS GLORIOUSLY.

Forsyth opened gloriously yesterday. It reminded one of ancient times. The old guard was out in force amid a crowd of 6,000 or so, in which it was almost lost. There were 21 books in the ring. Though but one favorite won, the balance of the trade was against it. The crowd was a wise one. It played the first two winners loyally and "piked" enough to stop profit, even on Little Sadie, Lulu T and Semele. The wisdom that was assembled backed Magnet as the choice thing of the day. He was the natural Inaugural Handicap favorite, at odds on and, with nothing to apply sharp and long pressure, won gaily.

The Forsyth establishment is a compact and comfortable one. The new surface of Indiana clay has sharpened its speed from 1:49 or so to about 1:43 for the mile. This will sharpen more as the surface packs.

All about the opening of the Forsyth course was most successful. The judges, Martin Nahanson presiding, with Harry Kuhl as his associate, were correct and prompt, and Dick Dwyer's starting was without flaw.

Two starting machines are to be tried to-day. One is the Leigh & Daniels appliance. It is a simple barrier rod with a light screen which, released by a spring in a box beneath the track, moves sharply up and away. There are no posts and no scary shadows that come from them.

The second machine is Secretary Creveling's. It is a plain band of rubber holding a screen across the track. When released it flies across. Both appliances are simple and cheap. Horse-owners generally consider the machine a certainty and a success.

TARTARIAN BEATS FREE ADVICE.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 15.—John Rodegap's good colt, Treopia, won another race to-day in a romp. He is one of the best youngsters at the track. He will not break from the starting machine, consequently there was a long delay before he got off, but it did not hurt him and he was fresh after the race.

The Tennessee Brewing Co. Stake was nothing but a gollop for Tartarian, who is at his best right now. He spreadeagled his field the first half. Thorpe put up a bad ride on Rondo and Tranby at the false price of 4 to 1 beat him. The racing was tame, crowd large and weather perfect.
